

Glass
Road

Public
Relations

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

June 22, 2006

Contact: Jessica Dotta

(615) 517-2332; jessica@glassroadpr.com

WHEN ENGLISH MEETS AMISH, CAN LOVE CONQUER ALL?
Best-selling author Wanda Brunstetter releases
THE BISHOP'S DAUGHTER

(NASHVILLE TN) Twenty-years ago a man desperate to give his wife a child kidnapped an Amish baby from the heart of Lancaster County. Now the baby has grown into a man and begun a search that will lead him back to his roots.

In Lancaster County, The Bishop's Daughter's betrothed has been killed in an accident, leaving her heartbroken and determined to remain unwed. But when a young English stranger shows up in his pickup and begins to work for her father, hope awakens in her heart.

When English meets Amish, can love survive the differences?

Wanda Brunstetter began writing in 1980, after taking a course from The Institute of Children's Literature. She is now a beloved and best-selling author writing about the peaceful, simple life of the Amish community.

Author is available for interview. To coordinate an interview time, please contact Jessica Dotta at (615) 517-2332 or jessica@glassroadpr.com.

The Bishop's Daughter
Wanda Brunstetter
ISBN: 1597890006
On shelves August 1, 2006
Barbour Publishing

###